

Board Game Product Comparison Chart

All Strat-O-Matic board game packages include all of the game parts needed to play. Since the game parts are universal, the main difference in the types of games you can purchase would be the players that are included with the game. Here is a breakdown of some of our board game product types:

NOTE: Please check the year on all of the “Current Edition” Board Games and Windows Games, as the production time on all of the new seasons for each sport may vary.

| Board Game Product | Includes Game Parts | Includes Current Season Cards | Includes Alternate Player Cards |
|---|---------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Strat-O-Matic Basketball Current Edition Our best selling board game package that includes all 30 current NBA teams. | X | X | |
| Strat-O-Matic Basketball Selector Set We have packaged the same great game as a starter package. This entry level version of our best selling game comes with all the game parts needed to play and 5 current NBA teams of your choice. | X | X | |
| Strat-O-Matic Basketball Year Games Any of Strat-O's classic season releases can be purchased as a full game. If you would rather have a specific older season with your board game instead of the current season, this is the product for you. For example, if you would rather play 2007-08 instead of the current season, you can purchase the 2007-08 basketball game instead of the Current Edition. | X | | X |
